All MGT & FOI Rappers United!

Houston, TX— 6/25/2021 — Saviours' Helper Productions of Artistic Operations is set to release a musical extravaganza in the form of a music video. The song's title is “100 Sermons: The Remix. It features riveting commentary by the Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan. And its cast of talent consists of 10 members of the Nation of Islam who have some of the highest levels lyrical prowess ever before witnessed in the history of Hip Hop. The international list of talent includes rappers from the United States and as far as the Ivory Coast of West Africa. The music video was directed and produced by Fard Abdul Saleem Muhammad (“Muhammad”) who serves as the executive producer of the project and also performs his own 8 bars in the song. The international listing of rappers continues to include: Hecava Mecca, Apacolips, Franck Toh, Malika Rarkia, DSCPLE, The Angel Jibreel of Lost Sheep Productions, X Rap Brown, Hiram Abiff and Rukoo. Its beat was produced by Allrounda Productions. After posting the original version on February 26, 2021 on YouTube entitled “100 Sermons”, this Roc Nation member posted this comment under the video:

“As-Salaam Alaikum (peace be unto you). Ya'll accidently left me off the list,” said Jay Electronica, of Roc Nation records and The Dogon Society.

Subscribers Reactions
